STREET STORIES

All cases in district court were passed this morning as the attorneys for the defendants and the state reported not ready for trial this afternoon the regular docket will be resumed.

The following suits were filed in district court today:

J. E. Hayes by guardian vs. the Georgia Oil and Gas Company, for cancellation of oil and gas lease.

Westheimer and Danbe vs. J. B. Boone, appeal from Justice Peace court.

The following marriage license was issued by the clerk of the courts yesterday:

Cecil Hogue and Miss Josephine Yocum, Lone Grove. They were married by Judge Champion.

John Wood and Miss Pearl Swann, Springer.

Will Crouch and Grace Wiseman, Marsden.

Jess Norton and Miss Belle Hughes, Durwood.

Wade Jones and Miss Jessie Strickland, Berwyn.

Col. Sidney Suggs, state highway commissioner came down from Oklahoma City yesterday and will remain here over Sunday with his family.

Mechanics yesterday dismantled the clock on the tower of the county court house and it will be shipped back to the factory. The dials were left on the building and the county commissioners will probably make a deal for another clock of different design to be erected in the future.

Mrs. Pruett, who has been here visiting her cousin, J. C. Baucher, has returned home to Abilene, Texas. Mrs. Pruitt recently returned from a trip to Europe, leaving just before war was declared. She was in Belgium shortly before the war was begun. She also visited in France and England.

GIRL'S MOTHER SUES.

Mother of Phagan Girl Brings Suit Against Pencil Company.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 22.—A suit asking $10,000 damages on account of the death of Mary Phagan, on a charge of whose murder Leo M. Frank has been sentenced to die, was filed today in Fulton county superior court against the National Pencil Company here by Mrs. J. W. Coleman, the girl's mother. Mary Phagan was employed in the company's factory, where she was killed in April, 1913.

The mother's complaint charges the girl was slain by Frank, who was superintendent of the factory, and by James Connolly, a negro sweeper, who is serving a year's sentence upon conviction as an accessory after the fact in connection with the murder.

Mrs. Coleman bases her claim for damages upon the allegation that the company was in duty bound to keep its premises safe for her daughter and to protect her from "the wilful and malicious acts of its own employees."

Mrs. Coleman avers that the company negligently failed to discharge these duties.

Counsel for Leo M. Frank and the state of Georgia announced today that the supreme court would be asked to hear Frank's appeal in his habeas corpus proceedings during the week of February 22.

JAIL TERM FOR HOLT.

Port Smith, Ark., Jan. 22.—Fred

Holt of McAlester, socialist candidate for governor of Oklahoma, one of seven who pleaded guilty to federal charges of conspiracy, was sentenced to six months in jail and to pay a fine of $1000. Pete Stewart, former district president of the mine workers, was fined $1000 but given no jail sentence.

James B. McNamara, former Hartford, Ark., city councilman, was given two years in the penitentiary and fined $1000. James Slankard, former constable, was given six months and $1000. Clint Burris, Sandy Robinson and John Wanick, miners, were sentenced to six months and fined $500 each.

The court action it is believed will end the union troubles in the Prairie Creek district.
